

Stuart Guterman

Speaker at PQC Summit on Cost and Quality:

Confronting the Chronic Care Challenge

Washington, D.C. • March 19, 2008

Stuart Guterman is senior program director for the Fund's Program on Medicare's Future, based at AcademyHealth in Washington, D.C. He is responsible for the Fund's research agenda on Medicare issues and Medicare's role in achieving a high performance health system; the oversight of grants to be funded under the program; and analyses related to the current performance and future improvements in the Medicare program and the health system overall.

He was director of the Office of Research, Development, and Information at the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services from 2002 to 2005. Prior to that, Mr. Guterman was a senior analyst at the Congressional Budget Office, a principal research associate in the health policy center at the Urban Institute, and deputy director of the Medicare Payment Advisory Commission (and its predecessor, the Prospective Payment Assessment Commission) from 1988 through 1999. Previously, Mr. Guterman was chief of institutional studies in the Health Care Financing Administration's Office of Research, where he directed the evaluation of the Medicare Prospective Payment System for inpatient hospital services and other intramural and extramural research on hospital payment.
