

Kaiser Lim, M.D.

Panelist at PQC Summit on Cost and Quality:

Confronting the Chronic Care Challenge

Washington, D.C. • March 19, 2008

Dr. Kaiser Lim is a consultant at the Mayo Clinic Rochester Department of Medicine, Division of Pulmonary & Critical Care Medicine. He is board certified in Internal Medicine, Pulmonary and Critical Medicine and Allergy and Immunology. A fellow of both the American College of Chest Physicians and the American Association of Asthma, Allergy and Immunology, Dr. Lim is the project leader of the Mayo Clinic Department of Medicine Asthma Initiative.

He trained at the Cleveland Clinic Foundation for Internal Medicine and went to Boston University for his specialty training in pulmonary, critical care and allergy and immunology. He completed a basic science research fellowship at Harvard at the Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital in Boston. Prior to joining the Mayo Clinic, he was director of the Asthma Program at Michael Reese Hospital in Chicago. He is married with three children.